

COMMUNITIES FOR ALL AGES

Using an intergenerational lens to enhance age-friendly initiatives

Major Demographic Changes

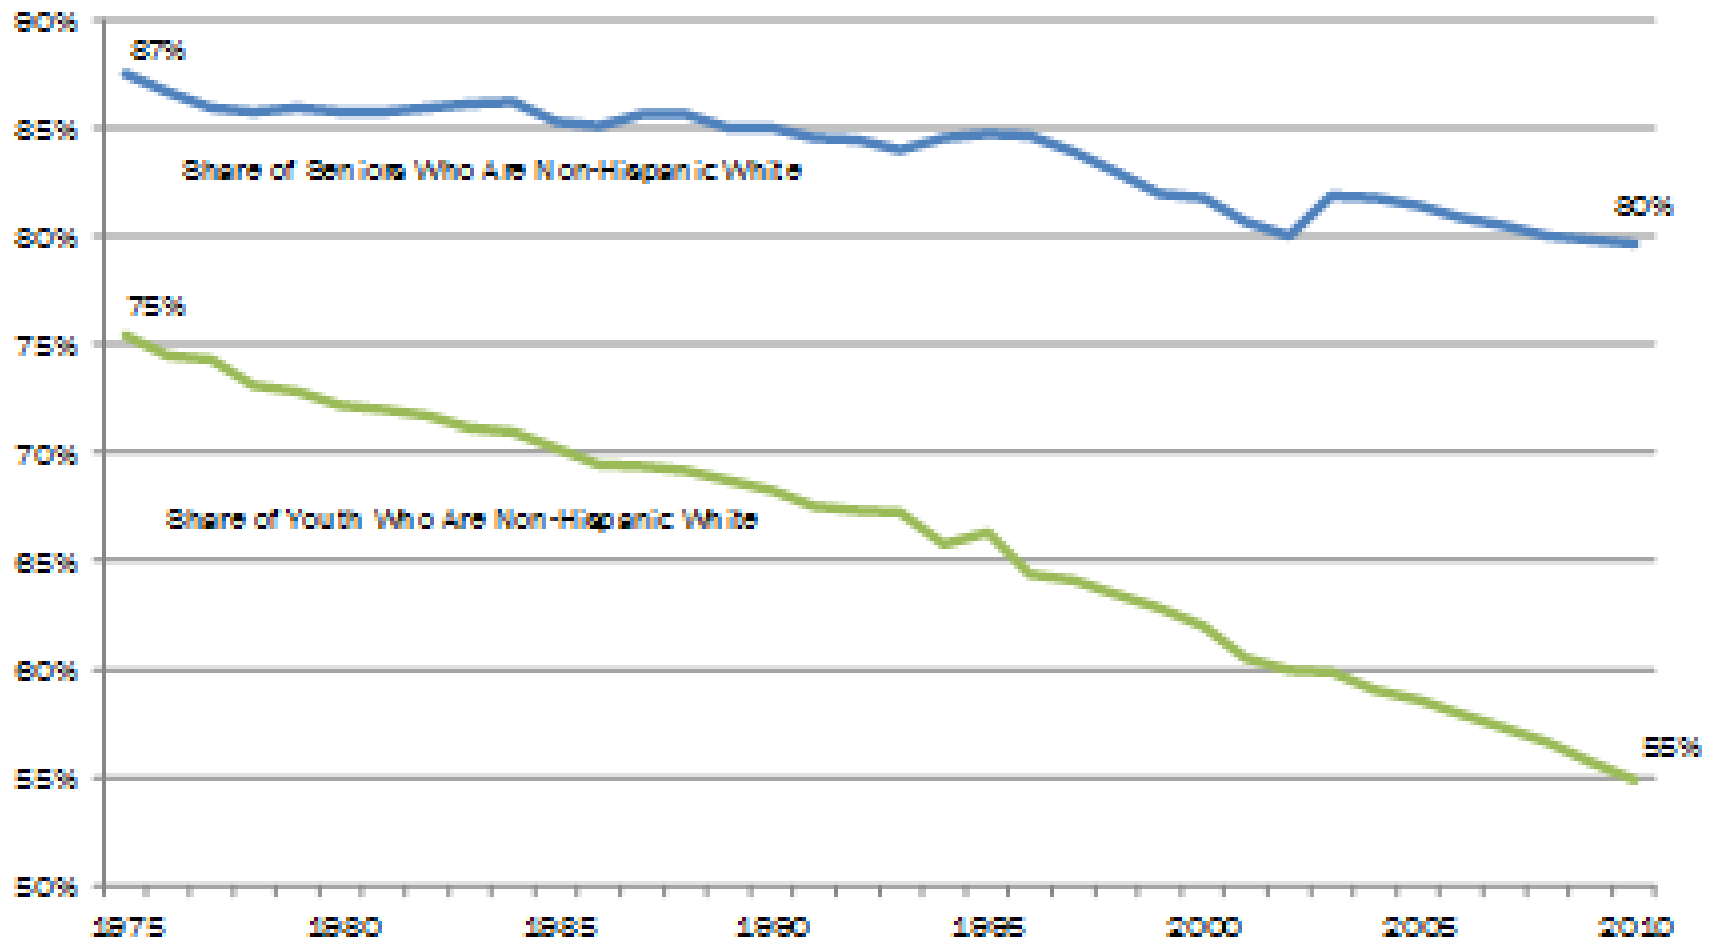

U.S. Changing American Demographics, 1970-2050

Note: Data from the U.S. Census Bureau. Projections for 2020 through 2050, which were generated before the 2010 Census, were adjusted based on the results 2010 Census.

Growing Generation Gap in the U.S. 1975-2010

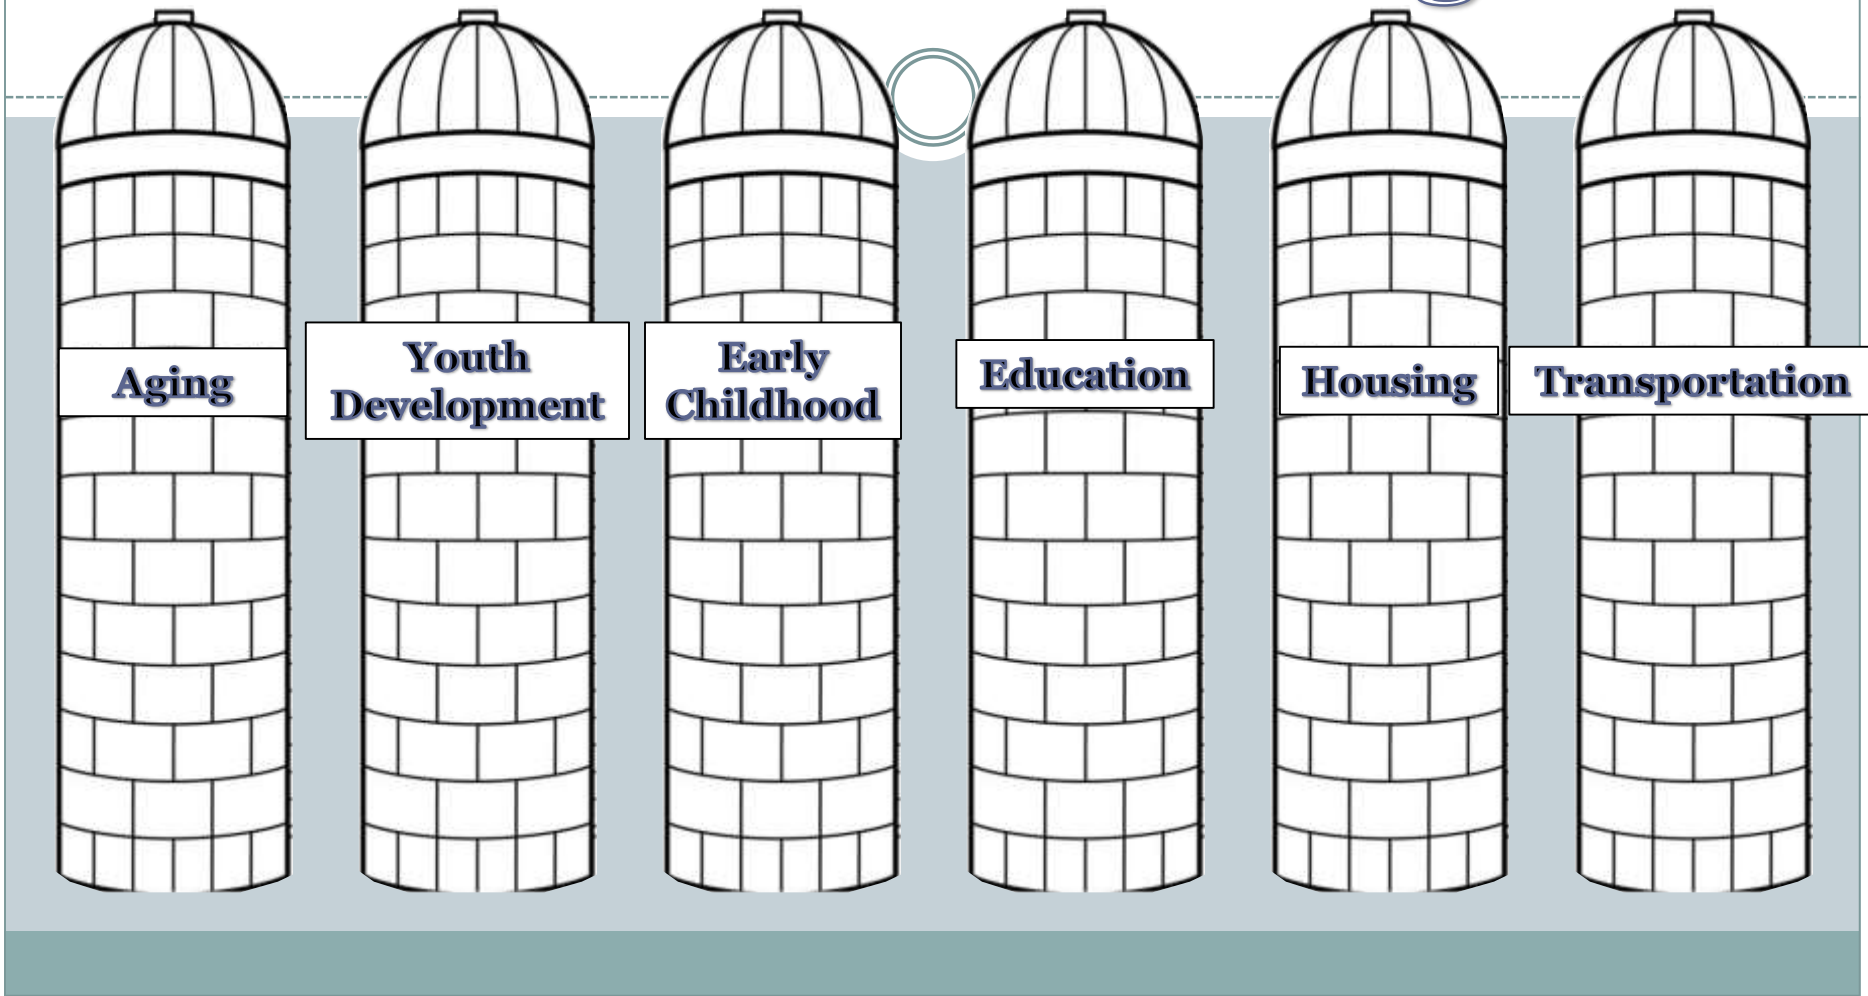

Source: PolicyLink/PEW analysis of data from the Integrated Public Use Microdata Series (IPUMS)
Current Population Survey (CPS) March Supplement

Strengthening of the Social Compact

‘Silo-ed’ Approach to Problem Solving

Communities for All Ages

Vision

- People of ALL ages are supported, empowered and engaged in community life*
- Diverse organizations and residents work together for the common good*
- Strong social networks foster interdependence across ages and cultures*

Key Strategies

Addressing Issues from a Lifespan Perspective

Key Strategies

Building Cross-Sector Alliances

Key Strategies

Engaging Residents of all Ages in Leadership Roles

Key Strategies

Creating Places, Practices and Policies for Cross-Age Interaction

AGE-FRIENDLY OUTCOMES

- Community Support

• Civic/social participation

● Respect and Inclusion

OPPORTUNITIES

- Develop “unlikely alliances”
- Plan across generations
- Build capacity
- Share spaces and act collectively
- Create new messages

