

Launch of 2012 Northern Ireland Life and Times Survey results

ARK is pleased to announce a seminar to mark the release of the results of the 2012 Northern Ireland Life and Times Survey.

Autism Awareness and Attitudes: A general population baseline

by Karola Dillenburger, Julie-Ann Jordan and Lynne McKerr
School of Education, Queen's University Belfast

The seminar will take place on Tuesday 4 June 2013, at 11.30 am
followed by a light lunch

in Canada Room, Lanyon Building,
Queen's University Belfast

This event is free of charge, but places need to be booked by Tuesday 28 May, by phone at 028 7167 5513 or by email info@ark.ac.uk.

This seminar will focus on knowledge and public attitudes to the social, employment, educational and housing issues facing people with autism, as well as highlighting personal experiences.

The Life and Times Survey is an annual survey recording the attitudes of the public of Northern Ireland to a wide range of social issues. The 2012 survey included questions relating to autism, community relations, minority ethnic groups, migrant workers, asylum seekers and other equality issues.

Full results of the 2012 survey will be available on the Life and Times website on 4 June at www.ark.ac.uk/nilt
