

A climate of trust?
Society and climate change in Northern Ireland

Launch of 2024 NI Life & Times survey

ARK

- joint initiative across Queen's University Belfast and Ulster University, established in 2000

Life and Times surveys

- NI Life & Times (NILT): 18+ (1998)
- Young Life & Times: 16 year olds (2003)
- Kids' Life & Times (KLT): 10/11 year olds (2008)

Men and Women in Northern Ireland: Challenging the Stereotypes

By Lizanne Dowds, Gillian Robinson,
Ann Marie Gray & Deirdre Heenan

Now what? Attitudes to devolution in Northern Ireland

By Roger Mac Ginty and Rick Wilford

Retirement: Facing the disappointment

By Eileen Evason
University of Ulster

Integrate or Segregate? Ten Years of Social Attitudes to Community Relations in Northern Ireland

By Joanne Hughes and Caitlin Donnelly

Putting our houses in order

By Katrina Lloyd
and Lizanne Dowds

Violence Against Women and Girls – Attitudes and Experiences

Paula Devine and Martina McKnight

Attitudes to immigration

Katy Hayward and Paula Devine

Political identities and aspirations in Northern Ireland

Katy Hayward and Ben Rosher

Access to mental health supports in Northern Ireland

Nicole Bond, Siobhan O'Neil, Paula Devine and Martina McKnight

The Other Division in Northern Ireland: public attitudes to poverty, economic hardship and social security

Sabrina Bunyan, Mark Simpson, Goretti Horgan and Ann Marie Gray

1998-2019:

- Face-to-face interview, plus self-completion
- Similar to NI Social Attitudes survey 1989-96

2020-2024:

- Online questionnaire
- Phone interview

2024

- 6 September to 19 November 2024
- Fieldwork undertaken by Ipsos

Attitudes of a random sample of 1,199 adults aged 18 or over

- Good Relations
- Minority ethnic groups
- Respect
- Politics
- Community safety, perception of paramilitary influence
- Criminal justice system
- Integrated education
- Skills and employment
- Adult safeguarding
- Gender-based violence

ARK

NILT

About

Results

Questionnaires

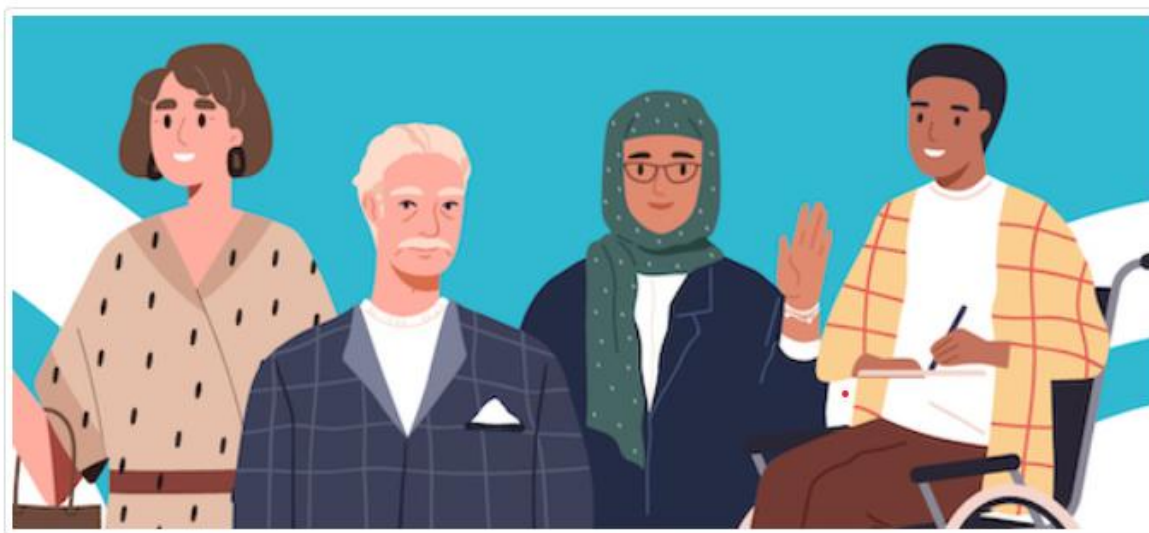

Datasets

Contact us

Northern Ireland Life and Times Survey (NILT)

Results from the 2024 survey are now available!

You can view the results of the previous NILT surveys here

Our funders, including

- Department of Justice
- Department of Education
- Department of Health
- Public Prosecution Service
- Police Ombudsman Office
- The Executive Office
- UKRI

ESRC Impact Acceleration Account, QUB

Our respondents

ARK / Conflict Textiles exhibition: The Environment McClay Library, Queen's University

<https://cain.ulster.ac.uk/conflicttextiles/search-quilts2/fullevent1/?id=355>

