

Age NI and ARK invite you to a conference entitled:
At the Crossroads: Preparing for an Ageing Population

This conference will bring together leading experts on ageing and will explore how policy makers and service providers in Northern Ireland can best prepare for demographic change.

Academics and practitioners will present their analyses and recommendations on key issues including dementia, housing, employment, building an age-friendly Northern Ireland, effective consultation processes, and engaging with 'hard to reach' groups. This conference is free of charge.

Speakers include:

Professor Robin Means, University of the West of England
Professor Marian Barnes, University of Brighton
Professor Vanessa Burholt, Swansea University
Dr David Lain, University of Brighton
Susan Russam, GEMS Northern Ireland Limited
Dr Malcolm Fisk, Age Research Centre, Coventry University
Dr Katherine Brookfield University of Edinburgh
Paul McGarry, Valuing Older People Team, Manchester City Council

Date: Wednesday 27th August, 2014, 9:30am to 4:00pm
Riddel Hall, Queen's University Belfast. Lunch will be provided.

To register your interest and receive a full programme of the day, please contact Michele Young; e: Michele.young@ageni.org,
t: 02890 892606