

Please join us for an interactive creating ageing symposium.

The key speaker and facilitator will be

Dominic Campbell

(co-founder and Artistic Director of Creative Aging International)

The event will be held at

The Playhouse, Artillery Street, Derry/Londonderry

on Friday, 13 May 2016

from 11am to 3pm (lunch will be provided)

Do you want to show off your creative culinary skills? Feel free to bring some baking to share!

The event is free, but please register in advance, by contacting Liam Campbell or Jessica Caldwell on (028)71268027 or email liam@derryplayhouse.co.uk.

This event will be a chance for anyone involved or interested in inspired provision for the older generation to get together and share good practice, exchange ideas, and network. We will begin at 11am in conversation with Dominic, and conclude with a round table networking afternoon. Individuals working in, or interested in, creative and positive provision for older people can address specific issues and meet in a friendly social setting towards a better understanding of creative ageing.

Dominic is a Visiting Fellow of the ARK Ageing Programme within Ulster University and Queen's University (www.ark.ac.uk/ageing). From 2006 to 2013, he led the 'Bealtaine Festival' a groundbreaking celebration of creativity in older age transforming it into one of Ireland's most significant annual events.
