

Northern Ireland Life and Times Survey 2020

Online questionnaire

www.ark.ac.uk/nilt

INTRODUCTION SCREEN

Thank you for agreeing to take part in this important research. Please take the time to carefully read the information below and the privacy policy which can be found here. The survey should take approximately 55 minutes to complete, and you will receive a £15 Love 2 Shop voucher as a thank you for taking part. You can close the survey at any point and return to it later if you wish.

The survey is being run by Ipsos MORI on behalf of Queen's University and Ulster University and is called the Northern Ireland Life and Times survey (NILT). It is a major study carried out every year and explores views on a range of social and political subjects.

This year, the survey covers community relations, attitudes to people from minority ethnic groups living here, criminal justice and community safety, political attitudes, coercive behaviour and COVID-19.

Some of the questions in this survey will ask you to reflect on some difficult issues that may be affecting you or someone you know. As the survey asks questions that are of a sensitive nature, you may prefer to complete it in private.

For more information about the survey and for sources of support, please click below:

- For more information about the Northern Ireland Life and Times survey (NILT) and its role, please click here. (link to www.ark.ac.uk/nilt/nilt.pdf)
- For support relating to domestic violence and abuse, please click here. (link to www.ark.ac.uk/nilt/cchelp.pdf)

Taking part in this survey is completely voluntary, and you may refuse to do so. However, we would really value your contribution to NILT as the leading independent source of information on what people in Northern Ireland think and the data collected is used worldwide.

It will not be possible to identify you and your responses be linked to your responses or shared with anyone else without your permission or in very rare cases where there is reason to believe that you or someone else is at serious risk of harm.

NEW SCREEN

Please read the declarations below and select the appropriate response:

I confirm that I am 18 years or older.

I confirm that I have read and understood the information for this study. I have had the opportunity to consider the information before taking part in this study.

I understand that taking part is voluntary, and that I am free to withdraw at any time without giving any reason and without any of my rights being affected.

I understand that relevant sections of anonymized data collected during the study may be looked at by authorised individuals from Queen's University and Ulster University only.

This questionnaire contains some questions relating to your community background, sexual orientation, ethnicity and political views. This information is collected so that we can ensure we are speaking to a range of different people and is treated completely confidentially. There are also some questions that are of a sensitive nature, such as in relation to coercive behaviour. You are free not to answer if you wish.

Are you happy to proceed with the survey on this basis?

Angela and John have been together for 5 years. After 6 months of being together John began to ask Angela a lot of questions about her online usage and check her social media accounts almost daily. John would get angry at Angela if she had liked the content of her friend's account. Over time, he told her to stop seeing her friends or he would leave her. John would get so angry at Angela that he would smash her phone to the ground in front of her.

After one-year together, John moved Angela out of the town she grew up in into an area 35 miles away so they could enjoy a bigger house and have more privacy. John did not like Angela to visit her parents. John had taken control of their finances so Angela could not buy a train ticket without asking his permission. By the time they had been together three years he would monitor her phone calls to home and cut off the line if the conversation was more than 5 minutes.

John would not let Angela go work and when he left the house, he would lock Angela inside and take the key to work. John told Angela if she left the house he would know and that there would be consequences when he got home. He would hold his fist up whilst saying this. When Angela made dinner and John did not like it, he would smash the plate in front of her and say that she was a useless partner. John would tell Angela daily that she was fat, stupid and that no one else could ever love her but he did. He told Angela that if she ever left him, he would kill her and then himself.

Rob and Jane have been together for one year. Rob would come to meet Jane for lunch every day at her workplace. Rob would ask Jane to try clothes on from her wardrobe and then he would tell her what to keep and what to throw out.

Over time he would take Jane shopping and replace her casual look with more smart style dresses, eventually throwing all her clothes out. Rob made an exercise regime for Jane so she could slim down from a size 10 to a 6. He expected Jane to work out 3 times a week every week and he would check her phone apps to see if she had or not.

Every time they go for dinner Rob would insist on ordering Jane's food, as he says that he knows more about good food and calories than she. Rob doesn't like it when Jane talks to other men, even in work, as it's too upsetting for him to imagine what the guys are thinking.

Rob generally would insist that Jane cancel plans with friends and family if he can't be there with her. He does not like when he and Jane can't go out together.
