Interviewer's Name _____ Interviewer's Number _____
Area Code Respondent Code
Date of Interview: Day Month Time Interview Began (24hr clock)

Introduction (Ask for named respondent)

Good morning/afternoon/evening. I am from the Economic and Social Research Institute in Dublin. We have been commissioned by a team of researchers from Trinity College Dublin and University College Dublin to carry out a short survey into social attitudes in Ireland today. You have been selected at random from the Electoral Register to participate in this survey. The interview will take about 55 minutes to complete and all information provided will be treated in the strictest confidence by the Economic and Social Research Institute. It will not be possible for anyone to identify your individual views or attitudes.

SECTION A

D8 People have different views about certain groups in society. I am going to read out a list of groups and I would like you to tell me how close you would allow members of each group. For each group I would like you to tell me whether or not you would be willing to: a) marry or welcome as members of your family; b) have as close friends; c) have as a next-door neighbour; d) work in the same work-place; e) welcome as Irish citizens; f) have as visitors only; g) debar or deport from Ireland. The main idea here is to get your first reaction, therefore, it would be better if we went through the list fairly quickly. [Int. Show Card D3 and tick (3) one box on each row.]I would:

D11 [Int. Show Card D4] The ladders below represent the distribution of economic wealth (money and property) in Ireland. Indicate, by placing an X in the ladder, how well YOU think each group is doing relative to the richest and poorest people in Ireland. So, for example, if you believe that some group is doing only slightly better than the very poorest people in the country you would respond by placing the X close to the bottom rung of the ladder.

For example:

(1) the wealthiest people in Ireland would be represented like this ...
